Stanhope backs council reduction

Stanhope township council has endorsed a resolution which would see a reduction in the number of members of county council and a redistribution of votes at the council. The township's feelings were made known in a letter sent to the council and read at the December 16 meeting.

Several months ago, the 1981 Warden, Murray

Fearrey, suggested the council should examine the structure under which it operates with the suggestion that there may be more efficient or equitable methods for the townships to be represented at the county council level. A number of options are open to the council, according to the Municipal Act of Ontario. The Warden requested that the councils give the matter some consideration and express their wishes. The Stanhope letter was the first received in the matter.

The Stanhope council suggested the county council should be formed under the provisions of section 27 A of the Municipal Act. This means that all municipalities with more than 2500 electors would be represented at the county level by a reeve and deputy reeve. Those with less than 2500 electors would only send a reeve to the county council.

In Haliburton County this would reduce the size of the county council from the present 19 to 16 since Cardiff, Monmouth and Snowdon townships do not have the required 2500 electors.

In addition the number of votes would be reduced from 29 to 19 and a redistribution of the voting strength would also take place.

Under the present system, motions are generally won or lost on a simple majority of the members in attendance. However, if a recorded vote is requested, some townships have additional votes, to a minimum of four, which have been assigned under a system related to township population. It is the number of these votes which would be reduced and redistributed under the provisions suggested by the Stanhope council. Interestingly, Stanhope Township would be one of the municipalities to lose one vote, from the present three to two.

No comment was offered by other members of the council to the Stanhope suggestion. It was pointed out however, that since the matter was going to be under consideration in the coming year, that other councils in the county should make their feelings known to the county body as quickly as possible.

MOE approves dump study

The Minister of the Environment for the province has approved Haliburton County's request for an area-wide study of potential garbage dump sites. Approval for the study was contained in a letter to the council from Keith Norton. The letter was read at the December 16 meeting of the council.

The dump study has been rejected last year by the members of the council who felt the investigation would be used as an excuse by the ministry to close present dumps or force municipalities to develop new areas.

In presentations to the council, representatives of the ministry indicated that it was not the purpose of the study to probe existing locations, but merely to identify the areas within each municipality which would be suitable for future dump development. With this knowledge, the MOE officials explained, the councils could control development in those areas, start proceedings to purchase the property or take other steps to ensure the municipality has a suitable dump site.

According to the officials, the land fill sites in most townships of Haliburton County are filling rapidly and new sites would be required in the near future. It was also noted that the study would be carried out on a county-wide basis in order to be economical.

Under the terms of the program the provincial government will pay 50% of the cost of the study, up to a maximum of $10,000. In announcing the acceptance of the county for the program, Norton commented, "I wish to express my appreciation of the forward thinking approach the county is taking in solving the difficult problems of waste disposal."

The comment was somewhat ironic considering that it took the council two attempts to approve the idea, and even then a number of the members of the council were vehemently opposed to the idea. The matter passed after a recorded vote was taken earlier this year.

The council must now make a formal application to the ministry for the study, which will include aerial photography as well as ground studies.

Official resigns

The business administrator for the Haliburton County Board of Education, Jim Leworthy has resigned.

The man announced his intention to step down in a letter to the board delivered December 15.

Leworthy has accepted a post with the Lennox Addington County Board of Education where he will have the same responsibilities as business manager.

Leworthy will continue to assist the Haliburton County Board with its business matters, helping with the computation of government grants, the preparation of the 1982 budget and the regular payroll preparation. He will continue to reside in the area until the summer months, returning on weekends to offer the assistance here.

According to the director of Education, Doug Hodgson, the board will not attempt to fill the vacant post until later next year. Some of the responsibilities which fell to the business manager have now been transferred to Hodgson, who has been named the treasurer.

Leworthy has been with the Haliburton County Board for the past 11 years.

Other news

The representative from Lutterworth Township on the Haliburton County Board of Education has been named chairman of the organization for the coming year. Cheryl Murdock assumed the position at the beginning of December and will serve until the installation of the new board in December 1982.

County wants the money now

Stating that "a deal is a deal," Dysart et al Reeve Murray Fearrey led Haliburton County Council in rejecting a request to delay receipt of a payment from the Haliburton Highlands Chamber of Commerce for the county tartan material. The question was raised at the December 16 meeting of the council when a letter from the Chamber asked that repayment of the advance be put over to mid or late spring.

The Chamber had purchased an amount of the tartan material several years ago. The tartan had been developed specifically for the county, with various colours representing various aspects of the area's natural attributes.

When the purchase was made the Chamber had received a cash advance from the county to cover the almost $3000 cost. The amount to be repaid to the county as the material was sold. The rate of repayment was $1000 per year over a three year period.

The letter from the Chamber indicated that about half the original purchased material was still in stock at the Chamber. It requested that any repayment of the installment be delayed until April or May of next year.

Dysart Reeve Murray Fearrey said the Chamber should meet the payment schedule. No other members of the council suggested the request for a delay be accepted, so it would appear the Chamber must pay the next installment.

Huskies win two

It was a winning weekend for the Haliburton Huskies as they claimed two victories. The first game, Friday evening, saw the locals down Oro 10-7, while in the second contest they defeated the Gravenhurst Indians by a 8-7 margin.

Dave Nicholls figured in seven of the 10 Huskies' goals Friday, scoring three and assisting on four others. Tim Davies also earned a hat-trick, with three assists also to his credit. Other goals came from Corey Walker with a pair and an assist; Jim Lee with a single and an assist and Duff Mitchell with a single. Assists were awarded to Ron Yake with four, Gary Harrison and Shaun Chapman with a pair each, and Don Manary and Rob Abbs with one each.

Collin Newell was in nets for the Huskies.

After that fine performance Friday evening there was little doubt that Dave Nicholls should be named player of the week. If there was any doubt, however, it was erased completely Sunday when Nicholls scored three goals in the closing minutes of play to squeeze a win out of the Gravenhurst team.

In addition to the goals, Nicholls also assisted on another.

Sunday's contest was a rough and tumble affair with a large number of penalties being called on both sides. Gravenhurst quickly moved into a commanding 4-1 lead after the first 20 minutes of play. The single Haliburton effort coming off the stick of Ron Yake, with assists to Tim Davies and Dave Nicholls.

The Huskies moved within striking distance in the second frame scoring four goals to two from Gravenhurst. Tim Davies scored from Ron Yake; Gary Harrison from Corey Walker and Duff Mitchell; Darren MacInnes from Kevin Shapiera and Ed Davis; and Shaun Chapman from Gary Harrison and Corey Walker.

Gravenhurst was holding a single goal edge as the teams moved into the last period. Dave Nicholls scored from Ron Yake and Tim Davies to tie the game. Gravenhurst took over the lead again at the 17:21 mark.

However, with the visiting team short handed, Nicholls was able to connect on two more shots to claim the victory for the Huskies. Rob Abbs and Tim Davies assisted on the first effort while Davies and Ron Yake were credited with assists on the second goal.

The Huskies have a single game this coming weekend. They play in Huntsville Saturday evening. The following Saturday, January 2, the action moves back to the Haliburton arena where the Huskies face Bracebridge. Sunday, January 3, the team travels to Parry Sound.

Accident injured three

Three people were hurt as the result of a single car accident Tuesday (December 15) on the Buckhorn Road. The mishap occurred on slush covered roads.

According to police, Dorothy Conners, 63, of Irondale was driving south on the road when she lost control of the vehicle and it slid off the roadway striking a number of rocks.

Also hurt in the accident were passengers Ann Glanz, 62 and Stephen Conners, 43, both of Irondale.

The accident was investigated by Constable Al Bibby.

Investigation continues

A charge of impaired driving has been laid against a Dysart Township man after he was stopped by police December 16. The incident has also led to an investigation as to how the rear window in the man's pick-up truck was shattered.

Police report the man was stopped in the early hours of Wednesday morning while driving through Haliburton Village. The investigation of the broken window is centring on the possibility it may have resulted from a firearm discharging.

Constables Al Bibby and Jim Martin are conducting the investigation.

Park carefully

Police are concerned that the influx of Christmas visitors to area cottages could cause problems on various roads in the county. Constable Gary Chapman notes that many cars are parked along the shoulder of roadways because private cottage roads or driveways are not ploughed in the winter.

"If the vehicle is parked in such a manner as to cause snow removal problems," the officer notes, "it may become necessary to have them towed away."

He pointed out that the roads must be kept clear of obstructions for the convenience of other road users and to ensure that emergency vehicles can get by, when they are needed.

Road changes

Constable Chapman has also pointed out that a change in status for the Vankoughnet Road (now Provincial Highway 118) means that access to the route by snowmobiles is also changed.

On designated highways in Ontario snowmobiles may use the portion of the highway outside the ploughed area to travel parallel to the roadway. This regulation applies in the case of the newly designated Highway 118.

When the route was a county roadway snowmobiles could travel along the shoulder of the road.

On a number of highways in the county, snowmobile traffic is permitted along the shoulder. These include Highways 503, 507, 519, 530, and 648. In all other cases, snowmobile drivers must be outside the ploughed area.

For complete information on snowmobile regulations in the province, contact the Minden Detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police.

CHRISTMAS

To: Otto, Irma,

at the Schnitzel House

A Red & White Christmas

'Twas the night of the 16th and all through the shop
Came Bill's voice over the P.A. "It's time to stop"

Let's go party and have lots of fun,
It's over to the Schnitzel House, we must run.

I'm not going to run called Lisa who was late,
But dear God don't go with Carol, we may end up in the lake.

Out from the store there rose such a clatter,
Joe ran to the windows to see what was the matter,
What to his bloodshot eyes should appear,
But an old Ford pick-up,
"Oh no the Boss is here".

More rapid than Wendy's Astre, that old Ford came,
Being pulled through the snow by his helpers he trained.

Now Scott, now Tim, now Craig and Sherry,
On Lori, on Karen, on Sandy, they weren't very merry.

From the top of the truck Mike gave a loud call,
Now on to the Schnitzel House, Dash away all!

Pam grabbed her buns, Lisa locked up the cash,
Uncle Bill watered his fruits and they all made a dash,
"Wait for me" called Anita as she quickly turned,
She ran into Marlin who was waiting for Verne.

They all trucked down the road with a shout and a glee,
"Let's really party tonight, can you believe it's free".
The gang they were happy, they sure felt better,
Till Bill turned up wearing you know what sweater,

Some were not there, Mac was away,
The macho from Westons and fun loving Wayne.

The shouts they were loud, so the story's been told,
Yet they were carefully watched from across the road.

They all partied till dawn helping the Schnitzel fill its till,
The last time they looked Mike was crying over the bill.

They heard him exclaim as he drove out of sight,
"What a heck of a gang at the Minden Red & White".

Count your blessings

Christmas is a glorious time of the year. It is a time of reunions, warm memories and friendly gatherings. It is also a time when we reflect on our present condition.

It's been a tough year in Canada. There were some notable achievements, but, as a nation, we have also come through some difficult times. The future seems to hold more of the same.

Despite the many problems that plague our Dominion, we are still a nation which is abundantly blessed. One need look no further than the lot which has been cast to the populace of many third world countries to be aware of just how fortunate we are. Certainly, the tragic events that are unfolding today in Poland offer ample evidence of the agreeable conditions under which we live.

As we count our blessings this Christmas season, let none of us ignore the fact that Canada is indeed one of the most desirable places in the world to be.

To all our readers.....

...what more can we say

The night before...

The following take-off on the familiar Christmas poem, has been prepared by Constable Gary Chapman of the Minden Detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police as a gentle reminder of driver's responsibilities, especially during the holiday season.

'Twas the night before Christmas
And all through the town
People were happy
Not a face wore a frown.
And out in the street
Not a driver'd been drinking
It seems they'd all
Been doing some thinking.
To drink and to drive
On this day or any
Would endanger their lives
Indeed, that of many.
So they walked, took a cab,
Or just stayed at home
And Christmas morning arrived
With no children alone.

Merry Christmas
P.C. Gary Chapman

Think safety this season

A message from Minden Fire Chief, William Jackson

"Christmas brings temptations to many parents, while visiting with neighbours or completing last minute shopping, to leave small children unattended for short periods," says Minden Fire Chief W.M. Jackson.

"At the same time, decorations, trees and wrapping paper bring an increased threat of fire danger unless constant care is exercised."

The Fire Chief urges all parents to recognize the fire danger of this season, and not to leave small children alone in the home for a moment. He points out that the Criminal Code of Canada forbids such action which endangers the life or health of any child under the age of ten years.

Parents are further reminded that under certain conditions a Christmas tree can be ignited by a single match to burn furiously to charred wood in a few seconds. Care must be taken to keep butts of natural trees immersed in water and to ensure that the tree itself does not obstruct access to a door or window. Families are also urged to review their home fire-escape plans for quick exit in an emergency.

SECOND CLASS MAIL REGISTRATION NO. 0936

Federation of Ontario
Naturalists

Chances are that somewhere in your household at Christmas, a sprig of holly (or a plastic version to resemble it) will be found. Hanging the Yuletide holly remains a part of the modern Christmas tradition, but did you know that this is a rite with long-ago beginnings?

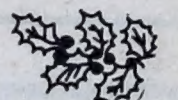

In ancient Rome, the mid-winter feast of Saturnalia was held to honour the gods of sowing and husbandry. To mark the occasion, socially-conscious Romans sent their friends holly to convey esteem and good wishes. Early north Americans also recognized something special about holly. Southern tribes of Indians valued holly as a badge of courage and an omen of success in battle, and warriors often drank holly tea to ensure strength and courage.

The familiar Christmas holly with its prickly leaves and bright red berries could either be English holly or an evergreen species native to the American south, where conservationists were often concerned about the annual destruction of wild plants in December. Most Christmas holly is now grown commercially, with hundreds of acres under cultivation on Vancouver Island.

Ontario has its own wild hollies, but our two species are much less conspicuous. Both mountain holly and winterberry holly or black alder are widespread across the southern and central parts of the province. Both occur as tall shrubs, usually mixed with the dense vegetation of swamps and bogs. Mountain holly especially likes the cool shade of cedar and tamarack bogs, and often roots itself along the edges of sphagnum clumps.

In the flowering months of May and June, when wetlands seem to spill over with blossoms of all shapes and colours, the small whitish flowers of the holly don't attract much attention. But when the chill winds of November leave only a forest of grey twigs, the holly's scarlet berries, draped to the tips of the slenderest branches, brighten many a wintry scene.

No room for Him

Pastor Wicks of the Minden Associated Gospel Church prepared the following thoughts on the Christmas celebration.

"And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped Him in swaddling clothes, and laid Him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn." (Luke 2:7)

God's plans are perfect

Let us thank God there was no room for the Son of God and His mother in the inn. Had there been room in the inn, then the birth of Christ would have taken place before the leering eyes of the mob and before the curious gaze of the vulgar crowd assembled therein. God was arranging all of this, and He was born in a stable because under the circumstances it was the best place. What appears to be a tragedy at first glance is a blessing in disguise.

His birth

There in the stable, which was no more than a cave and a makeshift place, Mary brought forth her firstborn Son. The first breath He drew was the air in the stable. He came from the atmosphere of heaven to the air of a stall! He departed from the presence of angels, and He arrived in the presence of animals! He came down from the light of the Father's house to the darkness of man's barn! He gave up the halls of eternity to enter a stable of maternity. It was a long way from the joy of heaven to the sorrow of earth! All the way He came to rescue men from a lost eternity!

Christ: both God and man

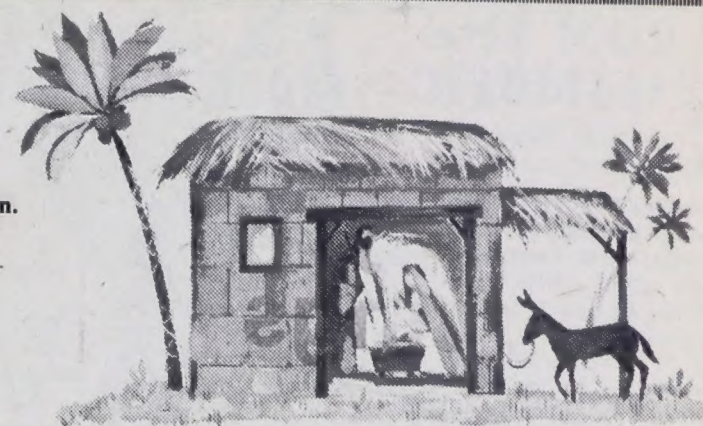

God robed Himself with human flesh at Bethlehem. He accepted the lowly towel of our frail humanity. It was at Bethlehem that "the Word became flesh and dwelt among us." We say, "Oh, the mystery of His person." He came to bring God to man. He came to set us an example. He came that we might understand God. But foremost of all He came to die for us! The Lord Jesus Christ saw that we were lost in the sea of sin, and there was none who could save us. He laid aside His kingly robes and came to the sea of mankind that He might rescue us from the treacherous waters of sin.

What of His birthday?

Nineteen hundred years have lapsed since then. Someone said that people were uncivilized back then, and called them the dark ages.

May we ask - Is the world more friendly and are the hearts more receptive to the Saviour today? Multitudes will be celebrating Christmas again this year - just a holiday - lots of eats?

Remember He is no longer a babe, not even a carpenter in Nazareth. He is no longer on the cross, the tomb is empty. He is now the living Lord at God's right hand who comes to human hearts and stops at the door of our hearts and knocks and says: "Behold, I stand at the Door and Knock: if any man will hear my voice, and open the Door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him and he with me." (Rev. 3:20)

The Christmas tragedy

"He came unto His own, and His own received Him not." (John 1:11)

He came unto His own - His own - and they Received Him not. They, who with eagerness Ought surely to have welcomed Him, 'twas they Who closed and barred their doors; They would not let Him in; No prodigal returning home in rags From far-off land, where he had spent his all Could have been treated worse. No felon's mark of shame touched His fair brow; He was a king, and yet, because He longed To share His glory with His own, He laid Aside His kingly power; He left His throne. And in the guise of human man, He came To bring to those on earth, freedom, and light, and love. He came to those He loved, sinners, and saints: And there were some who heard with joyfulness His wondrous news, and bringing Him their sins, They opened wide the door, and asked Him in. But when He came unto His own - His own - The door was shut and barred. And in these later days He comes to men, O'er battlefield, on land, or sea, or air. He comes to lonely spots where men in the Deep silences brood o'er the world's great need; And often He walks the crowded streets, seeking Some open the door, that He may enter in. But (saddest thought) He comes unto His own, And they who ought to be His temples, where He could reside, forbid His entry, for They know full well the house that should be His Is full already. Pride and selfishness, Ambition, and the cares of life have shut Him out. There is no room for Him. So once again the bitter cry is wrung from Him: "I came unto My own - My dearest own - And they - yea they - received Me not".

K.H.L.

My Christmas prayer

Let not our hearts be busy inns
That have no room for Thee,
But cradles for the living Christ
And His nativity.

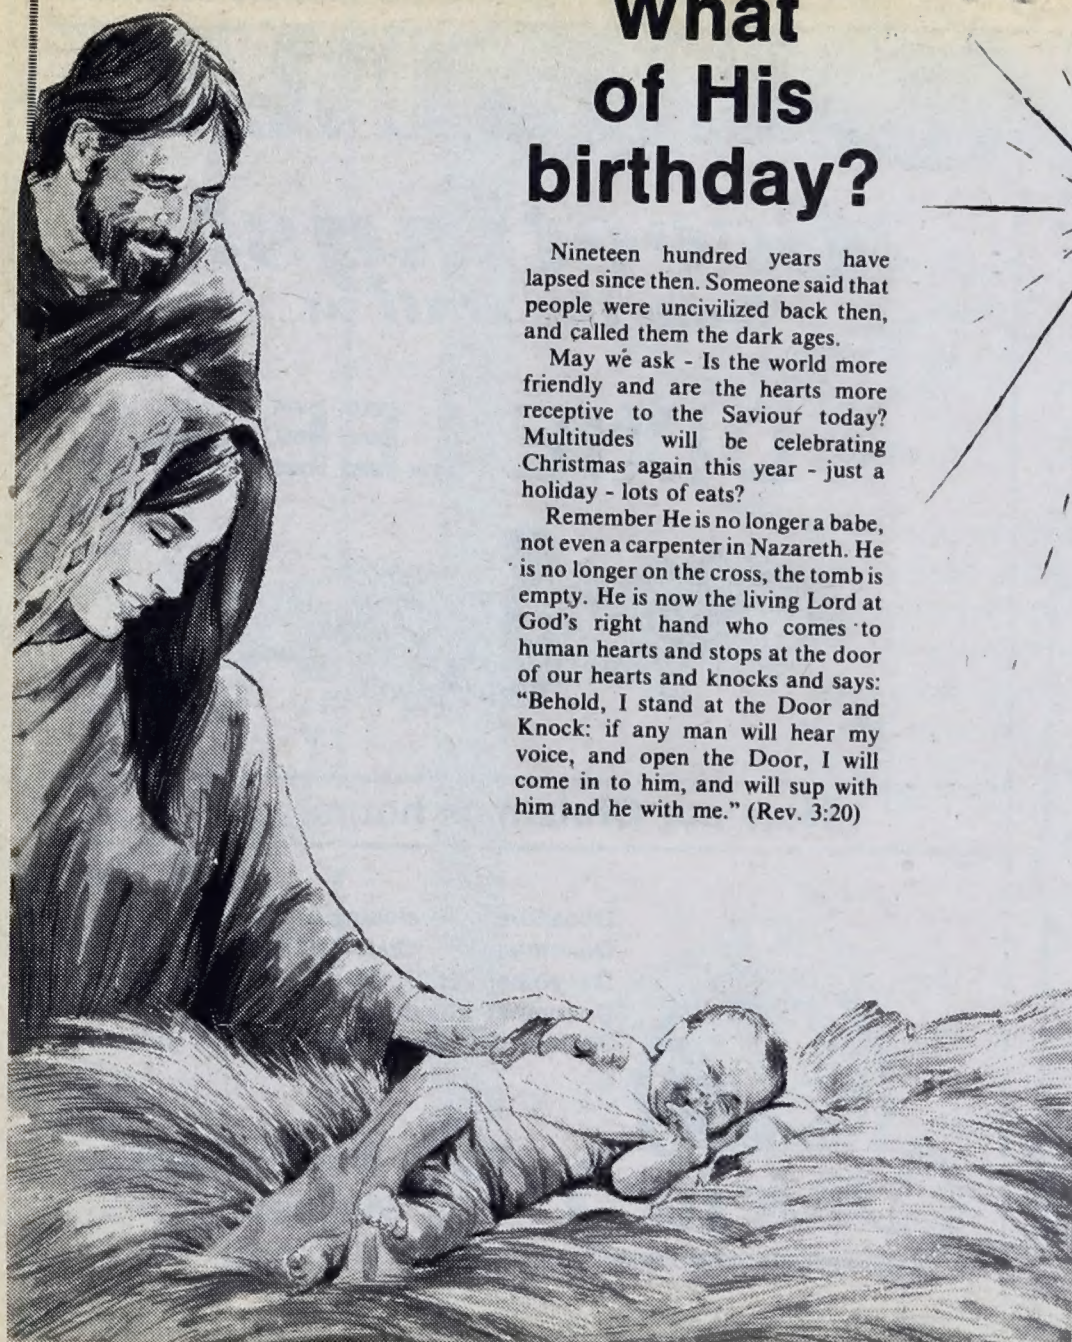

Still driven by a thousand cares,
The pilgrims come and go;
The hurried caravans pass on,
The inns are crowded so!

Here are the rich and busy ones,
With things that must be sold;
No room for helpless hands within
This hostelry of gold.

Yet hunger dwells within these walls,
These shining walls and bright,
And blindness groping here and there
Without a ray of light!

Oh, lest we starve, and lest we die
In our stupidity
Come, Holy Child, within and share
Our hospitality.

Let not our hearts be busy inns
That have no room for Thee
But cradles for the living Christ
And His nativity.

FROM THE CHAMBER

By Bob Stinson

Last week we were pleased to be in attendance at County Council when Lutterworth Reeve Ron Gambell was officially declared Warden of the County for the coming year. In his address he noted that following the past Warden, Murray Fearrey, into this office was certainly a large challenge and that his shoes would not easily be filled. He then called on members of council to pledge themselves to work together and provide constructive dialogue for the benefit of the County as a whole.

It is not easy for municipal politicians to go into the county meetings and leave behind their personal biases for their municipalities. We find the same factors and tendencies when we are involved in board meetings of the Central Ontario Travel Association. If, however, there is to be a benefit from working on problems at the county level, there must be a spirit of co-operation present that over-rides local prejudices. We have faith, that with Ron Gambell's leadership, this shall be accomplished and we wish him much success in the year ahead.

Sales tax returns

We provide a reminder here that the temporary exemption on retail sales tax for accommodation expires on December 31. Guests that have begun their stay prior to that date must pay sales tax on any portion of their stay that follows the deadline. Details have been mailed to all those known to be affected by the Ministry of Revenue and anyone who for some reason did not receive a copy may contact the Chamber office at 286-1760 for advice.

Many representations have been made to Provincial Treasurer Frank Miller on this issue without success. It was stated that "the industry has received a four year tax break in the application of this particular tax which far out ran similar waivers extended to other industry sectors". That argument may be valid if you can first of all show that the tax is a fair one in the first place. The business operator pays tax on his buildings, furnishings, and equipment and then must charge tax on the rental of them.

The industry is very concerned that the imposition of this tax will cause a total increase in vacation cost this coming year of over 20% and that it could very well kill the goose that's been laying the golden eggs.

Newsletter advertising

Immediately after the New Year we will be sending out a newsletter to our 325 members. Advertising positions or inclusion of mailing pieces are available at a very nominal cost. If you have a message you would like to include for our membership call the Chamber office at 286-1760 for more details.

Toll free line stays

The Chamber's toll free line is staying put. Due to transmission difficulties that the Bell Telephone said was beyond their control some of the subscriber's have given up their support of the line. It has been announced earlier that in view of these difficulties we would have to give up the service.

Subsequent meetings however have reversed that decision and the line will stay in use and be carried by four year-round subscribers and two 6 month subscribers. It should be noted that through the support of these 6 members the Chamber has the 1-800-461-7677 line available to anyone calling the Chamber for information. The number is toll free throughout Ontario.

Thursday, December 31st - 8:30 p.m.
at home of Gordon Sharpless, Haliburton

An Associated Gospel Church

On Saturday, December 12 members of the Salvation Army from Haliburton came here, read the Christmas story, sang some Christmas carols. They also left little parcels of fruit in each room which was very lovely of them. Thank you very much.

Sunday night service in the Chapel, Harold Thompson read the lesson from the 22nd chapter of Luke and Fred Parker led us in prayer. We felt it was good to be there.

Mrs. Thompson played and sang nicely for us and Rev. Burgess took his text from Luke 22:32. I have prayed for you, that ye fail not.

Ladies worked in craft room Monday afternoon. Monday night was games night where we spend a social hour. Some folks always seem to win because they have the bowers.

Tuesday morning Rev. Miller took the service here. A very nice Christmas service. He read from the 9th chapter of Isaiah, 6th verse. Unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given. We thank you for caring.

The Watson Smith Trio came Friday night - put on a real good show. They played some toe tapping tunes. We were loathe to let them go.

Our girls weren't here to make us exercise due to the passing of their mother. Our joints got stiffened up so bad we leaned on each other.

Thursday afternoon the ladies of the auxiliary put on a nice tea party for us. Thank you. Then Santa came - the dear old soul. He brought us all a present. Away down from the North Pole. Merry Christmas Santa and a Happy New Year too. If you stopped coming to this place we sure would feel real blue.

Friday afternoon is sing song time again. Mrs. Coburn and Mrs. Barron, for us they're always caring. They came to play and sing for us. Their talents they are sharing.

Friday night the members of the Minden Gospel Church came to feed us and entertain us too. Now this is something they sure know how to do. Mr. Wunker played the music, Rev. Wicks lead the singing of Christmas carols. In between he read different parts of this Christmas story and explained each part which was really grand.

Then Ray and Chris Johnson played and sang for us. It just made you feel that you were in the promised land. How to thank you all enough, it really is quite hard for you also left each one of us a real nice Christmas card. God bless you all.

Mrs. Hulbig brought her Sunday School class to sing for us. Mrs. Coleman brought some of her Sunday School class to visit us.

Saturday morning the Kinmount Brownies came along with their leaders. They surely were the darling entertainers. Fred Ballard played the music. Bless his great big heart, always more than willing to fill in any part.

They sang some motion songs and Christmas carols too that should cheer up any one feeling blue. A big thank you to their leaders who have trained so well. The way they entertained us really was quite swell.

Until next time.

Visions

*The night is still and dark and deep
With mingled thoughts I cannot sleep
And so I lie awake in bed
With many visions in my head
That seem to mistily arise
And focus there before my eyes.
A piney fragrance fills the air
A perfume, rich beyond compare
The holly vine and mistletoe
The same the Druids used to grow,
Recall with me another night
A night so clear, so starry bright,
"No room," the keeper of the inn had said,
"No room for anyone,"
The donkey waited patiently and small,
Her labor had begun.
And then three proud kings made their way
To a rude manger in the hay,
Upon the Saviour came to call
And found him resting in a stall,
The swaddling bands and fragrant hay
Were hallowed where the baby lay.
So many centuries have passed
Since that night, long ago,
But even though the years have passed,
One thing we all must know,
God sent his well-loved only son
Among us from above,
To try and find the way to peace
And all-abiding love,
So on this latest Christmas Eve
And though the Star seems dim
I'd like to breathe a Christmas prayer
And end it with a hymn
That's known and loved by everyone
In words of Tiny Tim,
For man to love his neighbour-so
At last His will be done,
And then - Lord rest ye gentlemen
God bless us everyone -
Merry Christmas!*

Lines from Lutterworth

by Jean Lacey

Hi! Everyone ready for Christmas? I guess I'm as ready as I'll ever be.

The Christmas concert at the Minden Gospel Church, held Sunday night, went beautifully. It was enjoyed by all.

I wish everyone a very merry and blessed Christmas. I hope Santa brings you everything you wish for.

Rhonda Melenchuk, with her fiancé, Gary Stacy, and her brother Steven, were up visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Lil Porter, and doing some snowmobiling in the area.

The Lutterworth Councilmen held an open house on Saturday, December 19 for the public to meet the Councillors and to congratulate Ron Gambell on being elected Warden of Haliburton County. It was well attended.

We also send congratulations to Mr. Gambell and wish him all the best on his new appointment.

Mrs. Linda Burley with Jeanne Bowron spent a day in Peterborough last week.

Rick and Pam and Jocelyn Dunsford from Fenelon Falls were visiting in the area over the weekend.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank Jack and the staff at The Times office for the beautiful poinsettia, and a wonderful year of their kindness in putting up with my small effort of writing for them.

Here is my Christmas Card to all who are kind enough to read my column. May your Christmas time be happy With a glory warm and strange, And the day be filled with blessings That will never, never change. May the blessedness of Christmas And the joy of all things dear, Form a large and lovely archway For the coming year.

Betty Stoffel

Happiness is often the half-way point between too little and too much.

Hint of the Week

If you are using candles over the holidays, it is best to place the candles in the freezer a few days before use, they won't drip so much. But if you do have them drip on tablecloth or carpet, place a blotter or brown paper bag over the spot and put a hot iron over the blotter. After a few minutes, the wax will be absorbed into the blotter. Repeat if necessary. To remove from furniture, soften the wax with a hair dryer. Remove wax with paper towelling and wash down with a solution of vinegar and water.

Kids Korner

I want to wish all you children the best Christmas ever. May all your wishes come true.

Waiting up for Santa
by Wilma W. Burton

Waiting up for Santa?
You're such a sleepy one -
And even though you're half awake
It still is lots of fun!

Waiting up for Santa?
And you've a candy cane
You picked out especially
To help him down Christmas lane!

Waiting up for Santa?
You tousled sleepy head,
Why, don't you know that Santa
Never comes 'till you're in bed!

Bye for now. Take it easy. God bless till next time.

Lutterworth Reeve Ron Gambell, left, was presented with a gift by the members of his council following his election to the post of Haliburton County Warden. The presentation, made by Deputy Reeve Glynne Lewis, was made during the regular meeting of the council. The package contained a wrist watch engraved to commemorate the occasion.

Christmas in my youth was certainly different. The trees were as pretty as could be. They held the strings we made, didn't cost a cent

Of course, they were made by you and me. The gifts were small and mostly homemade.

No one looked for things so costly. It would take part of next year to pay. Sleighs, skates, cradles and dollies

"Is that All" you never heard us say. Perhaps it is time to bring a change,

To the youth of today- to be thankful; Cooking the dinner on your grand range

Is not really so painful. Now to one and all of my readers out there,

May your Christmas be jolly and have a Happy New Year. Jay

I remember one very happy Christmas, when I was young. I had written to Eatons' Santa and got an answer in the mail. My Mother was a widow and she played the music at our Presbyterian Church so this meant there was singing in our home. The Christmas Concerts at School and Church had gone well. I suppose I would be eight at the time, and on the way home from school at 4, I had stopped to look at a lovely little blonde doll in a window. I was surely wishing that would be mine. A friend of Mom's saw me there and asked me which doll I liked. I pointed that special one out and then shyly went on home. Christmas Eve, about 8, there was a thump on our front door so Mom told me to go. There on the porch was that Special Doll! You know, I really believed in Santa that night.

Sincere sympathy goes to the families and friends of the late Orville Austin and Charles Harris whose funerals were since last week.

Ethel and Jack Cowan of Phelpsston visited with relatives in the area over the weekend.

Lee Austen of Thunder Bay is visiting with his family, the Art Austens.

Weekend guests with Mrs. Allan Taylor and Murray Taylor were Ellen and Ron Avarell of Orono.

The community send good wishes to these people who may still be in hospital, Helen Lee, Edith Welch, Nell Anderson, Elmer Crawford, Roy Crawford and Stuart Harrison.

There was a fairly good crowd of young people at the Common Room of the Cultural Centre for the showing from the library of movies. This was fun for the young people but with four hockey games, what could we do. We hope for a better crowd next time.

Mrs. Ethel Wood of Lindsay visited over the weekend with the Bob Wood family.

The Figure Skaters had a surprise last Wednesday, the 16th, when they went to the arena after school, as Santa was there with goodies for a party for everyone. Indeed they didn't even skate that afternoon.

Sympathy is extended to Florence and Phil Robinson, on the death of their long-time friend Bill Hart. He passed away suddenly at Woodstock on December 17.

Congratulations to Ron Gambell on being elected Warden of our County for 1982; he was so shocked, that he has left for a 3-week holiday at Daytona, Florida.

At the weekly Mini Card Party at St. Paul's Parish Hall last Thursday afternoon winners were for euchre lone hands Marg McAfee, and Verna McDonald and Jeanne Sears; for cribbage Cora Hewitt and Gladys Wruth. The next card afternoon will be 1:30 on January 7, so come out then.

In reply to my question about used stamps, two are as follows: The Leprosy Mission of Canada, 40 Wynford Drive, Suite 216, Don Mills M3C 1J5 or these may be left at the Library as Pearl Durant sends them to Foreign Missions in Toronto.

No shadows near to spoil your day,
The family round your table;
The children opening up their gifts
As fast as they are able,
Then spare a thought, where'er you are,
For those who know no Christmas star.

Anon

Snowing a blizzard to-day, Monday, evidently no green Christmas for us. Have a happy time. Cheerio until next time.

Minden Women's Institute

Mrs. Claire Brown, president opened the December 16 meeting of Minden Women's Institute at the United Church Hall with reading of Little Drummer Boy.

The Roll Call was answered by 23 members and 3 guests reading Christmas verse, quotations, stories, and one even sang Jingle Bells. Mrs. W. Moore, card convenor, reported sending 26 cards to shut-ins, people in hospital or of congratulations.

Mrs. L. Cox was appointed our Representative on the Coordinating Committee of Library Culture Centre.

Suggestion was made regarding a Resolution, this will be acted upon at the next meeting.

Collections were taken for Card Fund and Pennies for Friendship.

Correspondence was read including a letter and Christmas card from District President, Mrs. J. Stewart.

Mrs. Phil Robinson then accompanied the ladies in singing several Christmas carols.

Next meeting will be January 20 at 2 at St. Paul's Parish Hall with all ladies welcome.

Mrs. Kernohan and Mrs. Lemieux acted as Santas for Gift Exchange and Secret Pal gifts.

A colourful buffet was set and all enjoyed the delicious lunch and a social half hour followed.
